Bell Telephone Co. Asks Rate Increase; Offers More Service

As much as 25 per cent Raise in Rates for Wider Phone Range

Extended telephone service to Lake Villa and Fox Lake areas without toll or overtime charges are offered by the Illinois Bell Telephone Co. in exchange for an increase in rates.

Under the new plan, 2,067 Antioch telephone patrons may call anyone on the Lake Villa and Fox Lake exchanges and talk as long as they desire without extra cost.

To do this, however, the telephone company asks the Illinois Commerce Commission to raise the one-party residence rate $3.05 to $5.15; two party $3.25 to $4.25; four party, $2.00 to $3.70; rural $2.00 to $3.70; extension rate 75 cents to 85 cents, and four-party summer rate, $3.90 to $4.70.

Business phone rates would go up from $7.50 to $10.85 for one party; $6.50 to $9.60 for two-party lines; $4.50 to $7.40 for rural and $1.55 to $1.75 for extension. Semi-public would advance from $7.00 to $10.20. Switchboards and other equipment would entail moderate increases.

As in the previous increase requests which the telephone company received, the increased cost of equipment is cited as justification for the increased rates.

The increase for the state will amount to $24,000,000, netting $1,250,000 after taxes.

Route one will go to the south-west; two will go east of Antioch; three will take in Channel Lake and the new one, four, will go west and then north to Shangri-la.

To provide sorting table room behind the screenline, the lobby space at the postoffice has been reduced. Postmaster Kufalk said the carrier for the route has not been decided.

Driver of Ambulance Fined as Result of Accident February 7

James R. Gallagher, Fox Lake, driver of the Fox Lake Ambulance Service ambulance which crashed into a car driven by Jerry Healy, Beach Grove road at the intersection of routes 173 and 59 on Sunday, February 7th, was fined $15.00 and costs in Police Magistrate E. Elmer Brook's court Tuesday afternoon. The hearing had been delayed due to the absence of Brook.

Brook told newsmen today that in his opinion the driver had not exercised proper caution, and added that Gallagher was operating the ambulance illegally, due to failure to have a chauffeur's license. He added that although an ambulance has the right-of-way, and is not required to stop at stop signs, the driver must always exercise caution.

Skid marks more than 100 feet before the actual place of the collision, and twenty feet beyond after the crash, indicate that the ambulance was traveling at a speed more than 35 miles per hour claimed by the driver.

A second case, also heard Tuesday afternoon, resulted in a $5.00 fine being paid by Leonard F. Toepfer, Trevor, Wis., for speeding. The arresting officer was Walter Scott who stated that the violation took place on North Main st. on Feb. 12.

Expect Record Crowd at Tomorrow Night's Game with Grant High

Championship at Stake for Both Varsity and the Sophomore Team

Probably the largest crowd ever to witness a basketball game in Antioch will be present tomorrow evening when Antioch High meets Grant High with the conference championship at stake.

In the preliminary the Antioch and Grant sophomores will battle for honors, with a three-way tie for first place resulting if Antioch wins, and Grant undisputed champion if the Bulldogs win. Ela-Vernon is the third contender.

Should Grant varsity win tomorrow night the Bulldogs will take the championship crown from the Sequoia, but if Antioch wins, the two teams will be tied for first place in conference standing, with the opportunity of playing off the tie in the regional tournament at Crystal Lake where the two teams again will play as the second game of the first round on Tuesday evening.

Coach Dick Scott says his men are in good shape for the varsity game and Coach Warren Polley says his sophomores are in good condition too.

Just how good the two teams will play is unknown. The varsity, following its defeat at Grant has been improving steadily, although last Friday night it failed to get going until the last quarter when it pulled out ahead and won from Palatine 54 to 48 on the Pirate court. This avenged an earlier defeat at the hands of Palatine in an overtime game.

Mike Haviland accounted for 15 of his total of 21 points in the last eight minutes of play.

The Sequoia trailed 15-11 at the quarter, 16-13 at the half, and 40-34 going into the final quarter. Antioch made 22 of her 28 free throws.

While Antioch was beating Palatine, Grant won from Ela-Vernon at Ingleside 58 to 48 to clinch a share of the conference title regardless of a loss here tomorrow. Grant has but one loss.

The starting lineup for tomorrow night's varsity game will be:

Antioch	Pos	Grant
Ben Lloyd	F	Al Guetzloff
Larry Lass	F	Bob Bein
Fred Clarke	C	Kent Raffel
Mike Haviland	G	Bill Grennell
Warren Brownlee	G	Leroy Bettes

Terms of Fred Scott, Louis A. Biel Expire on H. School Board

The election of two members of the board of education of Antioch Township High school will be held at the high school and Lake Villa Grade school on Saturday, April 10.

The three year terms of two members of the present board, Fred Scott, president of the board and Louis Biel, secretary of the board, expire at that time.

A number of changes have been made in the school election laws which must be complied with in the coming board members elections. These changes deal with provisions for filing of petitions, withdrawal of a candidate, inspection of ballots by candidates prior to the election, absentee ballots, and with a statement of the qualifications of a legal school voter.

Nominations for members of boards of education shall be made by a petition signed by at least 50 voters or 10 per cent of the voters, whichever is less, residing within the district, and filed with the secretary of the board of education. These petitions should be accompanied by a statement of acceptance of candidacy signed by the candidate. Petitions may be filed beginning Feb. 24, and will be accepted until Mar. 20. Candidates may withdraw their names from the ballot if they notify the secretary in writing on or before March 26.

Irving Careys Hurt in Accident Sunday Near Marshall, Ill.

Were En Route to Florida; Car Hits Another Head-on; 3 Others Hurt

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Carey of 744 N. Main st. were badly but not critically hurt Sunday afternoon when their car and a car carrying three young women from St. Paul, Minn. crashed on Rte. 1 near Marshall, Ill. Mr. Carey is proprietor of an electrical shop.

The Careys left Antioch following an early morning church service and were driving to Tampa, Fla., on a two-week vacation when the accident occurred.

Mrs. Carey took the wheel at Danville when her husband complained of feeling drowsy, and he was asleep when the crash came. Mrs. Carey told her sister-in-law, Grace Carey of Wilmet, who visited at her bedside that she believed she dozed off and got in the path of the oncoming car and the result was a glancing blow.

Mr. Carey was thrown so that his hand protruded through the windshield which he also struck with his head. He was terribly cut across the top of the head and across the face and suffered much loss of blood. That his knees were braced against the dash is believed to be the situation which reduced the force of the blow to his head.

Mrs. Carey was thrown so hard against the steering gear that it was bent toward the windshield. She received an abdominal injury. The doctor in charge believed the fact that they were relaxed saved them from more serious injury for neither suffered broken bones. Both were taken by ambulance to a hospital back in Paris, Ill.

The three young women, employed in the office of the city superintendent of schools at St. Paul were on their way home from a southern trip. The driver was badly bruised and was hospitalized, but the other two were treated for bruises and released.

A garage man from Marshall, following the Careys sought an ambulance for them and then went after his wrecked car. He said both cars were afire when he returned with the wrecker, but the flames were extinguished, according to Miss Carey.

The Misses Grace and Erminie Carey were taken by their cousin, Grant-Tyler of Kenosha to Paris early Monday and Grace returned while Erminie stayed with her brother and sister-in-law. They were informed that the Careys plan to return by train Saturday. Their car, an Oldsmobile, was not regarded as worth repairing, so badly was it wrecked. The car of the St. Paul women was also wrecked beyond repair.

County Officials Say They Will Add Unpaid Personal Taxes to Bill

The Lake County Civic League and Lake County Farm Bureau this week revealed they had firm commitments from County officials that uncollected personal property taxes would be added in and extended with this year's personal property taxes.

Representatives of the two organizations met Monday, Feb. 15, with the Delinquent Tax Committee of the County Board to gain their cooperation in the effort to procure one more weapon with which to fight the delinquent personal property tax problem.

Stanley Rouse, Mundelein, president of the Farm Bureau, was pleased with the cooperation extended by the Delinquent Tax Committee. Rouse pointed out that last year the Farm Bureau and the League had met with County Clerk Garfield R. Leal, County Treasurer Hugo Schneider, and State's Attorney Robert Nelson to request that delinquent personal be added to the taxes which were extended last spring. While the officials claimed the time was too short to carry out the plan at that time, all officials promised that it would be done this year.

James A. Rust, Executive Secretary of the League, who represented the League at Monday's meeting, said the statutes are very clear at this point and that the delinquent persons should be added in just as is done for real estate delinquencies.

Representing the Farm Bureau at the meeting were Rouse, Ronald Padock, Wauconda, Elza Gwaltney, Warren Township, and Richard Faulkner, Newport township.

Daniel Hentges, Lake Forest, Otto Boehn, Libertyville, Frank Peers, Highland Park, and Frank Valenta, Fox Lake, make up the Delinquent Tax Committee.

Trucks Collide, Cut Off Telephone Service

A truck collision which occurred Tuesday at the intersection of rte. 45 and Wilmet road was responsible for a telephone and power failure over a large surrounding area, when one of the trucks struck power and telephone poles.

Henry J. Tonyan, 22, Ingleside, driver of one of the trucks told Kenosha county sheriff's deputies that a failure of the brakes on the truck he was driving was reason for crossing the arterial highway without stopping. Tonyan was driving west on the Wilmet road and collided with a truck being driven south on route 45 by Art Schmitt of Grand Ridge.

Tonyan posted bond and hearing of the case will be held in Kenosha on Saturday.

Your Biggest Debt

Manufacturers Record points out that most American families have a good idea of how much money they owe on home mortgages and other obligations. The average is around $2,800. But there's another debt we tend to overlook. That is our share of the $247,500,000,000 national debt. It amounts to more than $6000 per family!

Truth No Object

It is an old socialist stratagem to attempt to mislead and delude the public as to the true facts about private enterprise.

A prime example was recently aired. An Idaho electric utility wants to undertake a big and needed hydroelectric development on the Snake river. The socialist-minded groups are fighting this tooth and nail, and want the government to do the job on a tax-free, tax-subsidized basis. As part of their campaign, they have stated that the utility isn't representative of local sentiment and aspirations, because most of its stockholders live far away. A U. S. Senator described it as "A New England concern, headquartered in Maine, having few if any stockholders west of the Hudson river."

What is the truth? The utility has made the record public. It is owned by 10,360 stockholders, of whom 59.49 per cent live in 11 Western states. Forty per cent live in either Idaho or Oregon—as do all the company's officers and directors. Only 15 per cent of the stockholders live in New England.

No doubt the Senator was misinformed and made an honest error. But it's probable that this baseless charge will be repeated over and over.

"Prosperous" Is the Key Word

Graham Patterson, publisher of Farm Journal, one of the top magazines in its field, recently had some important things to say about the coal industry and the interest in it of the public-at-large.

"How many people . . . know that coal represents 90 per cent of America's fuel resources?" Mr. Patterson said. "How many realize that our gigantic steel industry, the very backbone of our defense program, could not operate without adequate supplies of coal? . . . How many even know that approximately half of the electricity that lights our homes, hospitals, highways, business establishments, that powers our telephone and telegraph lines and television facilities, come from coal? . . ."

"The public must be made to realize that it is imperative that coal DOES survive. For with the dynamic growth of our nation, the next quarter century should see a need for energy two and three times that of today. But, obviously, the coal industry cannot continue indefinitely to function if it is compelled by rising costs and short-sighted legislation to continue to operate at a loss. . . . A prosperous coal industry is one of the very foundations of our economic and military strength."

"Prosperous" is a key word in that statement. Profitless enterprise does no one good and all harm.

The Low Down From Hickory Grove

Of all the things a free U. S. A. citizen should have, is the right to make a living versus standing by as a scared mayor refuses to let his Chief of Police remove from the scene the imported picket blocking his progress. Avoid trouble, the mayor says. He should say, "If the blockading guy wants trouble, I will give him same," then throw the obstreperous gent into the cooler. Avoid trouble, the mayor says, as he tries to carry water on right and left shoulder.

Now this big palaver in Congress on the pros and cons of the right of labor—it boils down to the rights of the labor temple. To assist in clearing a menace, Uncle Ike's suggestion to congress is that a free and secret vote by the worker himself if he chooses to walk out or keep on working, should be adopted 100 per cent. So, the essence is—get the labor rules adjusted so each State can run its own shebang—get a flock of mayors with a core in their backbone—get over the notion we must be elbowed off the sidewalk by a bully.

The police chiefs of the land, with the proper type of mayor backin' 'em up and with proper laws on their books—with open season on pickets—could give this fair and flustered U. S. A. a much more grown-up look.

Yours with the low down,

Over 1,500 People Are Killed Annually In Car-Train Wrecks

MINNEAPOLIS—Over 1,500 people are killed and more than 4,000 are injured each year in approximately 4,000 collisions of automobiles with railroad trains. Of these accidents, 40 per cent occur in spite of closed gates, watchmen, or special signals warning of the train's approach.

Three times as many such accidents occur per hundred specially protected crossings as occur per hundred crossings marked only with traditional "cross-back" emblem.

The specially protected crossings, of course, average much heavier in volume of traffic, but their high accident ratio reveals the amazing capacity for heedless driving which makes the American motorist the despair of safety engineers.

The four chief causes of such accidents, according to highway authorities, are:

1. Simply taking it for granted that there is no train coming.
2. Paying no attention to "Stop" and warning signs.
3. Trying to beat the train to the crossing when a train is in sight or signals are flashing.
4. Starting across after a train has gone by, without looking for a second train on another track.

Migratory Birds Hit Empire State

NEW YORK—The Empire State building in New York is a traffic hazard for migratory birds going south along the Atlantic Flyway from Canada and New England.

On numerous occasions hundreds have crashed into the building as they passed over New York in the night.

The exact cause of the mass destruction remains obscure. On two occasions the birds were going south on a cold air mass that gave them a tailwind.

Exactly why many of the birds are killed against the building were flying so low is also obscure. Most of those that have flown into the structure usually travel at about 2,000 feet in the air. The building is 1,250 feet.

Ornithologists report that the building is a hazard at night when darkened after 12 o'clock. Many migratory birds take off at sundown and fly all night in their southern journey.

Navy's Skyray Sets New Speed Record

THERMAL, Calif.—The Navy's new Skyray interceptor has won back the world's measured course record with an average of 753.4 miles an hour.

The plane was flown by Lt. Com. James B. Verdin, 35, combat hero of World War II and Korea. The plane is a flying-wing jet type craft.

The Skyray erased the 737.3 m.p.h. record set by a British Vickers Supermarine Swift a few weeks earlier.

The Skyray is designed for use off carriers to protect the fleet from attack and is now scheduled for tests aboard the flat-top.

During the 20 minutes between take-off and landing, the nine-ton plane, powered by a Westinghouse J-40 turbojet engine, used approximately 3,500 pounds of jet fuel, a gasoline-kerosene combination.

Seven Men Survive 37 Days in Woods

BAGOTVILLE, Quebec—Seven men who spent 37 days in the wilds of Canada reported they had a rugged time. They were half starved when discovered.

The plane carrying the men ran out of gas and they were marooned on a small lake. The party exhausted their food supplies—rations for two men for 30 days. These were split among the seven men. When they ran out of this they ate wild moss, partridge, hare, and two small trout.

The escape was a narrow one. Authorities were on the verge of abandoning a long search for the men when a Royal Canadian Air Force plane spotted them.

Santa Gets Prize

COPENHAGEN—Cayl Dauw, who started at work at a Copenhagen department store in 1903 and has been acting as Santa Claus for the firm for the past 35 years, is to get a gift himself. He gets an expense paid trip to the United States as the store's anniversary gift. He thinks Christmas a good time to make the trip, because he can study American Santas on the job.

"Best-known of all American steam locomotives was probably the New York Central's old No. 999. It was the first 100-mile-an-hour engine and held the world's speed record for more than 12 years, after covering a mile in 32 seconds (112.5 miles per hour) near Datavia, New York, on May 10, 1903.

SHORT STORY

Masquerade

By Harold Gluck

THE dining car steward was doing his best to keep his temper from exploding.

"You can't go into this diner," he insisted.

"But I don't want any food or service," corrected the young lady. "All I want to do is to go inside and speak to one of the men."

The steward's orders were to keep all people out of the dining car until the train stopped at Hope-well Junction. But how do you handle a determined miss?

Finally she solved matters in her own feminine manner. She pushed him aside and hurried down to the last table.

"Oh, Fred," she exclaimed, "It is so good to see you!"

Fred Larack looked quickly at the man to whom he was handcuffed.

"Sit down for a minute, Elsie," he said. "You haven't changed a bit in the past five years."

"And you look like a million dollars," complimented the girl. "You always wanted to do something thrilling and dangerous. And now you are with the government. What branch?"

Fred Larack looked quickly at the man to whom he was handcuffed. "Sit down for a minute, Elsie."

"Sorry, Elsie," replied Fred Larack. "But that is something confidential. How are things back home?"

"Mrs. Wilson remarried. And guess to whom? John Peterson. Remember him? He ran the gasoline station at the edge of town. They tore down the Madison House and built a new library or the lot."

The handcuffed man sitting next to the window was becoming a bit fidgety. Fred Larack looked at him, hesitated, and then spoke.

"This is Mr. Weigand, Killer Weigand they called him in the newspapers. He is going to the penitentiary."

"Please to . . ." and then Elsie stopped.

"Tell me something about yourself," Fred said in effort to break the tension that was developing.

"After we broke our engagement," said Elsie, "I worked for Mr. Finegan in his law office."

"I don't notice any marriage ring. Still single?"

"There will only be one man in my life, and you know who he is," replied Elsie.

Elsie hurried out of the dining car a moment later and the steward rushed up to the table.

"Sorry it happened, Mr. Demarest. Before I knew what was taking place she had reached the table."

"Forget it," said the government agent. "No harm was done."

The steward went back to his post and there was silence for a few minutes.

"Thanks a lot for the masquerade," said Fred Larack. "I don't think you know what this means to me. Just one person in the world I wouldn't want to hurt."

"Well, you can repay me a bit," emphasized Frank Demarest, "if you make one thing clear to me. If a fellow has a girl like that, how does he get mixed up with counterfeiters?"

"I wanted a lot of money in a hurry," explained Fred, "and like a lot of other guys, thought there was an easy way to it."

"Suppose you had remained in that small town and married Elsie," asked Frank Demarest. "Do you think now you would be happier?"

"My right arm to turn back the lock. Is that answer enough?"

The train was slowing down. The two men arose from the table and waited until the train stopped.

A group of armed men surrounded the two. And Frank Demarest transferred his prisoner to another federal agent.

"Have any trouble with him?" asked one of the guards.

"Meek as a lamb."

They put Fred Larack in a car and sped away. Frank Demarest went to the waiting room to wait for a return train. Elsie met him.

"Thanks for everything, Mr. Demarest."

"He'll never know we pre-arranged it," replied the federal agent. "Nor will he ever know you gave us the lead that got him."

200-Horsepower Performance and priced far below it

Styled like years from now—the stunningly beautiful, sensationally powered 1954 Buick Century Riviera.

Try the POWER of the CENTURY
It's the buy of the year for folks who want high performance at a low price

At the wheel of Buick's 200-hp CENTURY, something tremendously exciting is waiting to happen to you.

It's the wondrous thrill of commanding a phenomenal performer that's yours for hundreds of dollars less than the middle-price cars.

We can give you here just a quick summary of the sensational facts about this spectacular automobile:

It has the highest horsepower ever placed in a standard-production Buick—and the highest compression ratio, 8.5 to 1.

It has the highest power-to-weight ratio of any Buick ever built—with a cyclonic 200-hp V8 engine driving with unbelievable ease the nimble weight of this sizable car—3852 pounds, for the CENTURY shown here, as it comes off the assembly line.

It carries a price that puts it substantially below the highly popular Buick SUPER—a price that buys more horsepower per dollar in a CENTURY than you get in any other automobile in America.

If it's true high performance you want, at a truly modest price, come in and meet the CENTURY close up—behind its wheel. You'll find it the buy of the year, hands down.

300 Hear Adult Band At First Performance

A crowd estimated at 300 heard the adult band in its first public concert at Antioch Township High School Tuesday evening.

Under the direction of the instructor, Louis Chenette, the band gave more than an hour's performance of popular and semi-classical selections, showing good results from the 10 weeks of training.

It is expected that at least the same number and possibly more will enroll for the next 10-week term and it is hoped that out of this training a permanent band can be formed for the community.

Antioch Milling Co. Gives 36 Years Service, Celebrate Next Thursday

One of Antioch's oldest and best known firms, the Antioch Milling Company, will take time out Thursday, March 4, to look back on an eventful and successful 36 years of service to the folks around Antioch.

Occasion is an evening of celebration for its friends and patrons, a "Good Neighbor Farm Party" sponsored by the local Doughboy feed dealer in cooperation with the Formula Feeds Division of Doughboy Industries, Inc.

Farmers of Lake county have seen a lot of changes and growth since the Antioch Milling company first began as a flour mill at the close of World War I, 1918.

Nine years later, in 1927, the little mill followed the trend of other flour mills about the country when it discontinued the manufacturing of flour and went into the farm feed business. Whereas flour milling was becoming "big business" and concentrating in the mills of big cities, the grinding, mixing and sale of poultry and livestock feeds was proving to be an increasingly valuable service to farming communities throughout the entire midwest.

In 1940, fire struck the local company, marking the beginning of a new and steady program of remodeling and modernization. Only this spring a new mixer was added under the management of George Wagner, and a large, modern hammer mill replaced an old grinder.

Three years ago the local milling company acquired dealership for the full line of Doughboy Formula Feeds manufactured in the electrically controlled mills at New Richmond, Wis.

Now, in addition to existing feed and grain services, those at the Antioch Milling company are able to offer their customers a choice of some 60 different feeds and concentrates, for all types of poultry and livestock and all made according to scientific formulas and precision mixed to almost perfect accuracy.

Professional service, too, is offered Mr. Wagner and his many customers, including Doughboy specialists in hogs, dairy cattle, turkeys and chickens.

Farmers have also come to know the store as headquarters for quality seeds, fertilizer, poultry and barn equipment, and even garden supplies.

The Antioch Milling company is also a friendly place, and when Manager Wagner isn't talking shop (he's been in the feed business for 22 years), he's chatting hunting or fishing, his two great loves, or talking up the activities of the Lions club or the Elks club, both of which he is an active member.

Employees at the mill include Jayne Allner, bookkeeper and assistant manager; Otto Hanke, in charge of grinding; and Wally Williams, outside salesman.

They'll all be on hand at the Antioch grade school Thursday evening, to help put on the Doughboy show, give away prizes, and serve lunch. There, too, will be Robert Ahlin, nutrition manager from New Richmond, and the entertainment troupe of Maggie and Scotty from Eau Claire and Chippewa Falls, Wis.

All of it is free to local farmers and their families in tribute and appreciation to the progressive farming industries of this area.

Stenographer Swims Gibraltar Straits; Holds Two Records

SAN DIEGO — Florence Chadwick, a San Diego stenographer, who recently swam the shark-infested Straits of Gibraltar, will go down in sport history as one of the great endurance swimmers of all time.

She swam the Straits in 5 hours and 6 minutes, beating the previous record held by a man by an hour and 53 minutes.

Experts had expressed doubt that Miss Chadwick could make the difficult 8-mile crossing. The first woman conqueror of Gibraltar's tough currents was Mercedes Gleitz of Britain, who made it in 1928 in 13 hours and 42 minutes.

Miss Chadwick is the first woman to swim the English Channel both ways. She holds the England-to-France record with 14 hours and 52 minutes.

In crossing the Straits she swam the same breast stroke at 30 strokes a minute all the way across. A doctor who examined her immediately after the swim, exclaimed: "This is not a woman, this is a Titan. Her pulse, respiration, and blood pressure are completely normal."

Miss Chadwick said after the swim that the English Channel is much wilder, but not near as difficult as the Straits. She said the currents there are the strongest she had ever encountered.

During the trip she took nourishment three times. She had broth and vitamins after 2 hours, chicken half an hour later, and crackers at 4 hours.

Department Finds 10,000 Old Letters

WASHINGTON — Assistant Attorney General Warren Olney reported recently after weeks of hunting that he has found about 10,000 unanswered letters in the Justice Department's Criminal Division.

He reported that some of the letters are 20 years old. One, for instance, was written in 1928 and has never been answered.

The new chief of the Criminal Division said most of the letters are now museum pieces. "The unanswered letters were just lying around on desks, or in drawers or filing cabinets."

Mr. Olney recently sent a memo to everyone in his division asking that all letters that had been around for more than 60 days without an answer be sent promptly to "central files," the master records of the department.

As a result, he said, an avalanche of letters flooded the records department after just four days.

Now he is wondering when it will stop.

15,000 Billboards To Sell Auto Safety

CHICAGO — The outdoor advertising industry has announced it will contribute 15,000 big billboards during the coming year to advertise safety.

The donation is the equivalent of about $500,000 worth of space.

Ned Dearborn, president of the National Safety Council, reports that accident prevention is a problem challenging salesmanship and advertising. The 15,000 billboards will be placed on highways at heavily traveled points where the greatest number of motorists can see them.

Franklin M. Kreml, director of the Northwestern University, told the safety group: "If every community did as much for traffic safety as the best communities, there would be a 50 per cent cut in the nation's annual motor toll."

Glacier Preserves Insects 600 Years

WASHINGTON — Grasshoppers, some of them almost 600 years old, have been preserved in glaciers in the high mountains of the Northwestern states.

The most notable of the "grasshopper glaciers" is in the Bear-tooth Mountains of Montana, near the northeastern corner of Yellowstone National Park. It is hard to get to this glacier, the institution said, but a few scientists have been able to study it.

The insects identified have been of the same type that spread devastation during migratory flights in the Seventies and Eighties, the institution said. Great hordes of the insects either flew over the glacier or were carried there by winds. Sudden snowstorms or cold air from the ice fields probably caused them to drop.

Traffic Citation

DENVER — Norman L. Peterson had a traffic ticket handed to him recently which says he ran through a signal light at Tennyson Street and West Colfax Avenue, February 3, 1913.

Peterson says he'll beat the rap. On that date, he contends there wasn't any traffic light at the corner, his automobile hadn't been built yet, and he wasn't born until 3 hours after the ticket is timed.

Louis Adams, Lake Catherine, Dies in Car Crash Tuesday

Louis Adams, a resident of Lake Catherine since 1947, and manager of the Lakes Amusement Company, was killed Tuesday, Feb. 23, as the result of an accident near Rochelle, Ill.

Adams was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Sam Tepper of Rockford, and Mrs. Ellen LaVelle, also of Lake Catherine. Mr. Tepper and Mrs. LaVelle were uninjured, but

Mrs. Tepper is still hospitalized at Rochelle.

The accident occurred at about 7:30 in the evening when the Adams car was passing another on a narrow bridge. The left side of the Adams car received all the damage, which resulted in the driver and Mrs. Tepper being injured as they were riding on that side of the car. Occupants of the other car involved were uninjured.

Adams was a member of the Antioch V. F. W. post and the Grayslake American Legion, and was well known here through his work as manager of the carnival company.

The body was taken to Chicago where it rests at the Matz Funeral Home 3440 Central ave. Funeral services will be held on Friday at 1:30 p. m.

Mother of Local Man Passed Wed.

Bertha Wells Stowe, 79, mother of Donald Stowe of Little Silver Lake, Antioch, passed away Wednesday, February 24, as a result of a heart ailment, at the home of a son, Edward Stowe of Glenview, Ill.

She was born at Syracuse, N. Y., July 17, 1874 and lived in New York City and Denver, before making her home in Glenview some years ago.

Relatives surviving are three sons, Don Stowe of Antioch, Edward and Howard of Glenview and one daughter, Mrs. Mildred Fielding of Winnetka, ten grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. Her husband, Fredrick, preceded her in death in 1933.

The funeral will be held at Scott's

Funeral home in Glenview. The time has not yet been set.

Winter Is Warmer and People Buy Less Fuel

William Lahti, who is in the fuel oil business and hopes for cold weather when others are hoping for warm, says that the temperature in Antioch is but slightly warmer than for the same time from Jan. 1 up to Feb. 20 last year, although there is 234 degrees difference in Chicago.

The winter from Sept. 1 is 725 degrees warmer, however, or about 11.2 per cent.

Lahti says he has been fortunate in getting new customers which makes up for the lesser amount used by the old ones.

SHORT STORY

Team Work

By Ray Trail

JAKE LYON leaned on the fence rail. He squinted at the young man in the toll house.

The automobiles were few, but Jake figured that a toll like fifty cents wasn't a bad way to make an easy living.

"August 20 ain't but a week yonder," he thought, "and I gotta clear outa here."

Reckon Ted Matthews'll be comin' back this way lookin' for me. Reckon he's about the only man livin' that knows he sprung two years on my account."

Jake watched the driver of the car at the gate pay his toll.

"Jingo of a racket," he told himself. "That kind of money would get me outa this here part of the country fast."

He remembered the fork of the highway around the bend where the main road left off into a narrow, rutted one. And his thoughts raced ahead to possibilities.

"Not far," Jake answered. He looked at the five dollar bill and grinned.

In a moment he ambled around the bend to the road fork and surveyed the situation. By placing a detour sign here he could run the traffic—some of it, anyway—across the old road.

In a few minutes he was spading a nasty hole in the right rut of the road. Jake measured the depth of the hole with his spade handle, and when it seemed to him hub deep, he carried enough water to fill it.

Slouching under a sycamore tree just a few yards away, he heard the strangled splutter of wheels.

"Reckon that's it," he told himself. And he walked a few paces beyond the turn-off so that it would look as though he had come straight up the road.

"Kind of a bad spot to be in, Mister, I reckon, unless you get somebody to pull you out."

"Know anyone?" the man asked.

"Well, old Doc Smothers has a couple hosses, but I reckon he's got 'em over in the field. Maybe I could use my own mules. They ain't much good, but maybe they'll be able to pull you out."

"Good," said the man. "Give you a fin if you get me going in a hurry."

He was back in record time. In front of him two sickly old mules shuffled their bony frames.

"This oughta do the trick," he said. And in less than a minute the car was out.

"How far does this detour go?" the man asked.

"Not far," Jake answered. He looked at the five dollar bill and grinned. Couple more of these would put him out of town.

He was just about to doze when he heard another car.

Jake's eyes popped. "Reckon that's another five." He grabbed the reins and started the mules up the hill. A little man with a cigar was shouting to his two companions to do something.

"That's a tough spot to be in, Mister," Jake said. "I can pull you outa there in a jiffy. Won't cost you more'n a fin."

"Well, don't just stand there!" The little man with the cigar walked over to the edge of the road to avoid the sloop, and his cigar almost fell from his mouth. The mule tracks were unmistakable.

And close by sat the water bucket.

Jake had the car out and turned for his money, but he was surrounded like a dying chicken under three evil-eyed hawks.

In the car the little man shifted his cigar. "Can you push her a little, Sam? Gotta make that station by six."

"Yeah," answered Sam. "I nearly forgot. Say, who's that guy Matthews?"

"Some joker just got outa the can. Got railroaded and wants to get even. Knew Bernie in the clink. Bernie sent him, so we gotta take him to Richmond."

A moment later, Sam cleared his throat and asked, "What about the old farmer back there?"

The little man loosened his shirt collar and mopped his forehead. "Looks like the fool shoulda knowed it couldn't rain that hole full it ain't rained for weeks!"

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS"

By E. WILSON HARDER

The drive to increase postal rates on all mail, including newspapers, to reduce operating deficit, turns up interesting sidelights on U. S. Postal Service.

The lot of top career postal men is not the most happy one, and it is to their credit that they maintain an efficient service.

At various times, criticism crops up that P. O. service is staffed with people lacking understanding of business principles, but Congressional committee hearing on subject indicate statements of this nature are largely due to ignorance of the handicaps under which the service operates.

In usual business procedure, securing possible costs is routine practice. But postal officials are barred from this established business practice.

As an example Post Office has been compelled to pay air mail rates and subsidies fixed by the Civil Aeronautics Board.

Due to recent disclosures CAB now pays subsidies out of its pocket, as of Oct. 1st.

Thus an estimated total air mail subsidy for this year of $80,855,000 will not be charged against postal service.

But the postal service, paying rates of 45 and 53 cents per ton mile as fixed by the CAB, will pay airlines $56,070,000 this year for supposed service charges.

There is a lot of discussion that there is an element of subsidy even in the service rate of 45 cents per ton mile. In a recent hearing, W. Lee Pierson, TWA head stated at least a part of the 45 cent rate should be considered as payment for services rendered, leaving a strong inference that part represents subsidy.

The Senate Small Business Committee announces independent airlines which CAB classifies as irregular, has made an offer to fly mail for 15 cents per ton mile.

And although this rate would knock off as much as $40 million more from Post Office costs, the postal service is powerless to even discuss this offer, without CAB consent.

No one knows what a 15 cent per ton mile rate might do toward lowering other mail transportation costs. Testimony in a previous hearing established that in past few years rail mail rates have increased 85%.

Robert S. Henry of the Association of American Railroads estimates that rail rates for carrying mail are 16.2 cents per ton mile. In this rate, of course, is figured the transportation of the railway mail clerks.

However, competition has a strange way of working to lower costs. If the Post Office could fly mail for 15 cents per ton mile, in order to meet this competition, railroads might be able to refigure their mail rates.

It's interesting speculation, but will remain speculation unless Congress decides to give the P. O. authority to run the department on straight business principles.

But until such time that the Post Office is in a position to reject being loaded with unnecessary costs, and is able to bargain for services as a free agent on the open and competitive market, it appears that no increase in postal rates can be justified.

PROPERLY SELECT AND INSTRUCT THE BABY-SITTER

When going out for the evening, be sure you have selected a capable and reliable baby-sitter, preferably one who is familiar to the children. Basic instructions should include giving her in writing the telephone number and address where you can be reached. Also leave the name and telephone number of a nearby relative, close friend or neighbor whom you know is at home for the evening so the baby-sitter can get help in case she cannot reach you. Put the latch on the door before you leave and advise her not to open the door to strangers.

A NEW, IMPROVED TELEPHONE SERVICE PLAN proposed for ANTIOCH

Larger local calling area to include calls to Fox Lake and Lake Villa telephones—without toll charges and with no limit on talking time!

Basic monthly service rates will be higher, but customers will save toll charges to the above communities.

Since 1940, there has been a big change in people's telephone calling habits. For example, more people now live in surrounding towns or in neighboring territory. So your telephone calling has "spread out" to include a bigger area.

We've been studying these changes to find out how we can make our service fit the needs of our customers better. We've studied their calling habits to find out where they call the most on social and business matters.

As a result, we recently proposed a new, improved "spread out" service "tailor-made" to meet the needs of most of our customers. This proposal was made to the Illinois Commerce Commission. If approved after hearings before the Commission, it will replace the present service plan.

Under this proposal you would have these advantages!

1. A larger local calling area, including the exchanges listed above.
2. You can call these points as often as you want with no toll charge and you can talk to them as long as you please without additional charges.

In other words, with the new rates, many toll charges and overtime charges will be eliminated entirely.

Complete information on the new, improved Service Plan is contained in this folder which is being mailed to you. Don't fail to read it!

This folder explains the new rates and includes a map which shows you the new enlarged toll-free calling area. Please read this folder carefully. Then if you have any questions, or if you do not receive the folder soon, call your Service Representative at our Business Office. She will be glad to help you.

Why Higher Rates?

Your monthly charge will be higher. But the value of your service also will be greater.

Increases are necessary because inflation continues to increase our costs. Biggest cost item, wage rates, has gone up 132% since 1940. An installer's truck which cost us $901 now costs $2,224! Copper has gone from $10.69 to $29.88 per hundred lbs. A telephone pole that cost $15 now costs more than $40. And so it goes. Most of the things we use to provide your telephone service have just about doubled in price!

Yet, we must continue to meet the needs of our customers. We must continue to provide the kind of service you need today, keeping it good where it is good, making it better where it should be better. Even with the rate adjustments we are asking, telephone service will still be one of the biggest bargains in your family budget. Few things give you so much for so little as your telephone.

We will gladly answer your questions—call us, ILLINOIS BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY

Farm Notes

Keep watch on your tile drainage system to locate any signs of weak spots showing up, especially near the outlet.

Sprays or dusts of rotenone, pyrethrum, methoxychlor or lindane are the only ones recommended for use with dairy cattle.

About half of the high baby pig death loss, on the average, is caused by young pigs being crushed under their mothers, says a University of Illinois livestock specialist.

Diarrhoea in baby pigs may be caused by several diseases.

There is no treatment yet known for transmissible gastroenteritis in baby pigs, so the best thing to do is prevent its occurrence with the best sanitary precautions.

Plan to creek-feed your baby pigs at about one week of age this spring to get them off to a good start, suggests a University of Illinois livestock specialist.
